The TAPED sponsored Statewide Conference on Education of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (SWCED) is just around the corner! At each conference a select group of individuals is recognized for their outstanding commitment, passion and professionalism in the field of Deaf Education. Do you know someone with these qualities? If so, recognize that person by nominating him/her to be chosen as one of TAPED 2014 Outstanding Person in Deaf Education awards. One person from each category below will be honored with an award and recognized in front of peers and colleagues at SWCED this summer.

Complete the application below and send it to Tina Vaguine at one of the following:
